

An invitation to join the Friends of the Austin Public Library

Join the Friends of the Austin Public Library and help support library services, programs and other activities.

What do the Friends do?

- Encourage community awareness of library services
- Provide volunteer assistance for library programs, open houses and special events
- Assist with delivery of books and library materials to local assisted living facilities and other facilities, and to the homebound
- Contribute funds from dues, used books sales and other events to purchase materials or equipment beyond the library's regular operating budget

*Thank you for your interest in the Friends of the Austin Public Library.
Please fill out the information below and return it to the library.*
